STORM ENDED WITH COLD SNAP

45-Mile an Hour Gale Blowing Last Night Prevented Damage from Frost

FROST WARNINGS OUT FOR CITRUS DISTRICTS

Flood Conditions in North Improve—Steamer to Carry R. R. Travelers on Way

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—The recent storm cleared here last evening and was followed by cold that was accompanied throughout the night by a forty-five-mile-an-hour gale which prevented frost. Traffic is being gradually restored today at practically all points.

San Luis Obispo reported by long distance telephone that there have been no trains there since last Friday. The marooned Southern Pacific passengers there are waiting for the steamer Santa Clara to remove them, as there will be no trains at San Luis Obispo or Santa Barbara for several days.

Frost Warning Issued
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—Frost warnings for the citrus belt have been issued by the weather bureau. Cold weather prevailed in Southern California last night, Placencia reporting the coldest—29 degrees. There was some frost in unprotected places, but there was no damage. The total rainfall of the storm here was 5.72 inches.

FLOOD SITUATION IMPROVES IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—The steamer Santa Clara is expected to reach San Luis Obispo today from San Francisco with supplies and other necessities for the shut-in territory, where there have been no trains or mail since last Friday. Although on account of heavy seas the Santa Clara may not arrive at San Luis Obispo until tonight, according to officers here, she will remove all Southern Pacific passengers stranded there, then will continue on to Santa Barbara to perform a like service.

The Northern California flood situation is improving. Traffic is normal except on the Southern Pacific coast line.

ESHLEMAN SAYS REPORT ABSURD

Denies Secret Agreement With Gov. Johnson as to Giving Him Governor's Chair

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—"Absurd and ridiculous," was John W. Eshleman's characterization of the reports printed here that his candidacy for lieutenant governor was based on a secret agreement with Governor Johnson, whereby the governor, if re-elected, had pledged himself to withdraw at the end of two years to permit Eshleman to become governor. Eshleman said:

"I announced my candidacy on the assumption that Governor Johnson will serve out his term. Any story to the contrary is absolutely unfounded and really too absurd and ridiculous to merit refutation."

MEN CALLED OUT TO PROTECT COTTAGES

BALBOA, Jan. 28.—Although Newport and Balboa Beach had not until yesterday suffered from the high tides and heavy seas, the southeast storm proved too much for the bulkheads toward the point of the peninsula, and every available man was called out early yesterday morning to protect the houses fronting the ocean that threatened to be washed into the sea.

CULLOM IMPROVED TODAY
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—At 1:30 this morning, former Senator Cullom was sleeping peacefully, apparently suffering no pain. Opiales had been administered to quiet the patient. Attending physicians thought there was a possibility of Senator Cullom living for a few days longer.

WARDEN INVENTS R. R. SAFETY RAIL

Frank O. Hellstrom, warden of the North Dakota penitentiary at Bismarck, with the help of a life convict, Carl Olson, has invented a safety rail for use on railroads, which he believes will prevent many accidents and save thousands of lives. The rail is to be given its first trial on the lines of the Soo system this spring. Railroad men and steel mill owners have become deeply interested in it.

The Hellstrom-Olson safety rail is made in two places, a reversible tread of hard steel, which doubles the life of the rail now in use, with a continuous reinforcing bar of soft steel. This combination, it is said, will eliminate defective rails and rail failures due to the severity of the cold.

Hellstrom achieved a national reputation as warden of the North Dakota penitentiary on account of his humane treatment of the prisoners. He ran for governor to succeed Governor Burke on the Democratic ticket in 1912. In a three-cornered fight he lost by 7,000 votes, though he ran 2,000 votes ahead of President Wilson, who carried North Dakota's presidential vote. He is now mentioned for United States senator this spring against Senator Gronna, Republican, the present incumbent, who is up for re-election.

'WHITE STRIP' ON IT IS LARGELY A QUESTION OF WHO PAYS

Missouri Women Up and Doing in Extending Zone of Women's Freedom

INITIATIVE PETITION ABROAD FOR AMENDMENT

More Than Half of Signatures Needed Already Obtained by Energetic Workers

COLUMBIA, Mo., Jan. 28.—With suffrage to east of them and suffrage to west of them, Missouri suffragists are today organizing a campaign, which they expect will secure "votes for Missouri women" and make a "white strip" on the equal suffrage map from Indiana to Utah. Initiative petitions for a vote on the suffrage amendment to the constitution today are being circulated in two-thirds of the congressional districts of the state and more than half of the 23,000 signatures necessary have already been secured, according to Mrs. Walter McNab Miller of Columbia, Mo., president of the Missouri Equal Suffrage Association.

The Proposed Amendment
The amendment to the Missouri constitution which the women expect to submit to the men of the state by an initiative petition follows:

"Females shall hereafter have the same right under the same conditions to vote at all elections held in this state as males now have or may hereafter have."

They Want to Help the Men
"Many people have the wrong idea of woman suffrage," said Mrs. Miller. "Missouri women are not going into this campaign with any feeling of antagonism. We feel that the men have too much to do. We have been asking our husbands in the past to earn the living and at the same time carry all the burden of public life."

EX-SENATOR CULLOM OF ILLINOIS, DEAD

Died Today After Lingular Illness—Had Been Notable Figure in U. S. Events

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Former Senator Shelby M. Cullom of Illinois died today after a lingering illness. His death has been expected for some time, as he had been critically ill. He had been near death several times during this last illness, but had rallied with extraordinary energy.

Senator Cullom has been a notable figure in the history of the United States. Senator Cullom's critical condition lasting for so long a time was due to a breakdown owing to old age. His family had repeatedly been summoned to his bedside, but each time hitherto he had rallied. He was born in Monticello, Ky., in 1829, was governor of Illinois for eleven years and was then United States senator from 1876 to 1913.

GOETHALS HEARS HE IS TO GOVERN ZONE
Declines Comment—Panama Pleased—Salary as Governor $5,000 Less Than Present Pay PANAMA, Jan. 28.—News of the signing today by President Wilson of an executive order establishing a permanent government for the canal zone with Col. Goethals as governor, reached here late yesterday and brought with it a general feeling of relief. Col. Goethals expressed pleasure, when advised of the appointment, but declined to make comment in the absence of official notification.

It is believed in official circles here that the plan submitted by Col. Goethals through the secretary of war has been followed. This would give the governor control of all features of the administration, the more important officials being either navy or army officers experienced in the work of the respective departments of which they will have charge.

Col. Goethals is understood to have selected Capt. Hugh Rodman as the navy superintendent in charge of the operation and navigation of the canal, and Naval Constructor Daniel C. Nutting to be superintendent of all the construction shops at Balboa and elsewhere, succeeding Lieut. Col.

Tracey C. Dickson. Capt. Hugh Rodman was appointed today chairman of the board of local inspectors to serve during the absence on leave of Lieut. Col. William V. Judson, Engineer Corps, who is on his way to the United States. Lieut. Col. Judson, while on leave, is expected to appear in Washington in connection with an investigation begun in 1913, when he left office as engineer commissioner of the District of Columbia.

GOETHALS TO LOSE $5000 A YEAR BY APPOINTMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Official notification of his selection as governor of the Panama Canal Zone was cabled to Col. Goethals at Panama. Secretary Garrison said he was confident there would be no question about his acceptance. The nomination is to soon go to the senate. The change in title will mean a loss of $5000 a year to the head of the zone, as the governor's salary will be $10,000, and he now receives $15,000 as chairman of the commission.

150 U. S. MARINES FOG IN NEW YORK HARBOR CAUSES PANICS

President Oreste Abdicates and Anarchy Prevails—South Carolina Off to Scene

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Carrying hundreds of marines to prevent anarchy from spreading in Hayti, the battleship South Carolina is speeding southward today in response to reports of a crisis impending there. She will add her Blue Jackets and marines to the force from the cruiser Montana, already sent ashore at Port au Prince, for the protection of Americans and foreigners.

The abdication of President Oreste at the height of the rebellion prevailing in Hayti, leaves that country without a semblance of government. Captain Russell of the South Carolina has orders to take command of the situation and to use his judgment as to the mode of procedure. He expects to arrive at Port au Prince tonight.

MARINES FROM MONTANA LANDED AFTER ABDICATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Dispatches to Secretary of the Navy Daniels last night from Rear Admiral Badger at Guantanamo state that the Montana has landed a force of 150 men at Port au Prince, Hayti, to preserve order. The German cruiser Bremen has also landed a force of German sailors and marines, but the number is not stated. Admiral Badger received this news from Captain Nulton of the Montana. On the receipt of this news Secretary Daniels ordered the battleship South Carolina, Captain Russell, to clear at once from Guantanamo for Port au Prince.

President Oreste of Hayti has abdicated and it is claimed that anarchy prevails at Port au Prince.

STANFORD SOPHS SUSPENDED FOR ODDIOUS HAZING

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—Because they stripped two freshmen, poured molasses over them, covered them with feathers and then made the freshmen pick the feathers off each other, and also because they dumped twelve freshmen into the campus lake, twelve sophomores of Stanford University have been suspended for periods of from ten days to three weeks. The action was taken by the university conference. H. L. Hahn, a sophomore of Pasadena, was suspended for three weeks.

JAPAN SENDS NO ARMS TO MEXICO

So Declares White House—Report Revival of Last Year's Similar Story

REBELS SAID TO CONTROL HALF OF ALL MEXICO

Huerta Treats Death Plot Lightly—Idzumo's Officers Are Banqueted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The circumstantial story that Japan is sending arms and ammunition to President Huerta is declared "foolish and baseless" at the White House. Secretary Tumulty said the story was simply a revival of last summer's story and was not based on facts. He said that the Washington government is not prepared to hold the Tokio government responsible for the actions of the Mikado's sailors on their recent visit to Mexico City although he admitted that Huerta might make capital out of their presence. He said the president is passively supported by all nations in his Mexican policies. No information was forthcoming on the expected removal of the embargo on arms on the Mexican border.

NO CRISIS IMMINENT SAYS ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Administration officials are reticent today as to reports that Japanese interference has hopelessly complicated affairs in Mexico. President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan insisted, however, that no crisis is imminent. Confidential reports collected by the President within the last few days show that the rebels in Mexico now control at least half of the republic. He is confident that Huerta's elimination is now only a matter of a few weeks. It is known here, however, that a large shipment of machine guns, rifles, and ammunition recently left Europe for Mexico and Provisional President Huerta.

HUERTA AND FRIENDS MAKE LIGHT OF PLOT

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 28.—Provisional President Huerta and his friends tried to make light today of the plot discovered against the dictator's life on Monday, but everyone on the inside of the situation knows that the plot was a formidable one, and not only had it gone so far that all preparations were completed, but so many prominent men were involved that the administration officers fear they have not unearthed the entire plot. It is agreed the blow might have fallen if the conspirators had not delayed the stroke too long. Foreign Minister Blanquet has issued a statement denying that any of the conspirators have already been executed.

MEXICO WARMLY GREETED OFFICERS OF JAP CRUISER

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 28.—A banquet was tendered to the officers of the Japanese cruiser Idzumo at the national palace yesterday afternoon. Reporters were excluded during the speeches. Secretary of the Interior Acocero says there was no allusion to the United States in any of the speeches, which were cordial toward all the foreigners who were well disposed toward Mexico. Senor Moseno said he hoped the Japanese would take home in their hearts sincere love for Mexico, which loves them.

ALASKA RAILWAY PROJECT IS TOPIC

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The House spent today in discussing the Alaska railway bill. A compromise substitute for the Chamberlain Senate bill will probably be adopted. The Chamberlain measure appropriates $40,000,000 for the building of the road. This is $5,000,000 more than the Wickersham bill provided. The House will conclude the general debate on the measure next Wednesday.

CAN'T USE ROCK CRUSHER FOR A TIME

Good Roads Work in This County Escaped With Little Damage

The good roads work in this county escaped with very little damage as a result of the rains. The principal bad result of the storm will be in delays that have been caused. Chief of the troubles of the Highway Commission at present lie in the fact that the county gravel pit at McPherson has been put out of commission and it may be three weeks before it will again be in working order.

A sidetrack from the main line of the Tustin branch of the S. P. was washed out by the Santiago creek flood, and without it cars of material cannot be gotten out. The McPherson bridge is in bad shape, and will have to be repaired. The road will have to be put in shape before materials can be secured for rebuilding the short track to the rock crusher. In addition to that a deposit of silt was left on the gravel bed, and that will have to be removed. Reports received from various good roads jobs over the county are to the effect that the work that is already laid held up in good shape.

WILL TAKE X-RAY TO DETERMINE INJURIES

E. R. Majors, Pacific Telephone line-man, who fell from a pole yesterday, is seriously injured, but as yet the physicians have been unable to determine the extent. A close examination has been impossible, owing to the man's condition and it will take an x-ray examination to determine what bones, if any, are broken. One hip and the spine seem to have been hurt.

CRUSHING OF LEMONS WILL START MONDAY

By-Products Plant Has Vats
Placed, Ready for Running in Few Days

The machinery to be used in making by-products from cull lemons has been placed by the International Fruit Products Co. in its house on the Santa Fe reservation, and it is expected that next Monday the crushing of cull lemons will begin.

This company came to Santa Ana without asking anyone to take a dollar in stock. All it asked was an opportunity to do business. The company has plants for utilizing citrus by-products in Florida, Cuba and Spain. Its plant here will use cull lemons from all over Southern California.

About sixteen men will be employed in the plant here at first. The plant has a capacity of ten carloads of cull lemons per day. Numerous products will be forthcoming from the factory.

The plant has secured sewer connection and has put in its motors, vats, crushers and other apparatus that will be used. A shipment of lemons was received this week, but as yet work has not commenced on them. The local manager will be Mr. Burton, who arrived here from Minneapolis a few days ago. H. W. Lee is to be superintendent of the house.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

COUNTY MUST CLOSE AT 11

Two Ordinances Passed by Supervisors on Koepsel's
Suggestion

Two weeks from today poolrooms in Orange county, outside of incorporated cities, must close their doors at 11 o'clock each night instead of at 12 o'clock midnight.

This is one change made in the operation of poolrooms by two ordinances passed by the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon at the suggestion of Deputy District Attorney Koepsel. Koepsel has had charge of the prosecution of a number of poolroom cases in which violations of the county ordinance regulating those places were charged. The new ordinance is aimed to remedy some of the useless difficulties of prosecution that Koepsel has found existing under the old ordinance, which will go out of effect in two weeks.

While the law can order a poolroom proprietor to close his place of business at any given hour, it cannot prevent the proprietor from being within his own place. The old law made it necessary to allege that the defendant was not the proprietor. In every poolroom case the prosecution had to prove ownership. Under the law now by a change of wording, the proof of ownership rests with the defendant. In other words, the defendant must show who has a right to be in the poolroom after the closing hour.

The ordinance makes it a misdemeanor for any poolroom proprietor to allow any person under 21 years of age to remain within his poolroom. The maximum penalty for violating the new law is a fine of $500 or a sentence of six months in jail.

The second ordinance passed by the supervisors at the suggestion of the deputy district attorney is an anti-gambling ordinance. It makes it a misdemeanor to gamble, play in a gambling game or bet on any game played with cards, dice, balls, cues or any device representing money or credit, such as checks, chips or other representatives of value. It is also a misdemeanor to keep a place where gambling is conducted. The ordinance specifies that it does not cover any of the games already mentioned in the state law. The new ordinance is meant to correct some of the lame spots in the old law.

Call for Bids
The county is ready for new bids on the section of the Santa Ana canyon road this side of the Riverside county line. Bids were opened for this work several weeks ago, but all were rejected as the cost would total $55,000, which is more than the highway commission wants to expend on the section. The grades were changed and the width of the roadway decreased so that now it is thought that the bids will come within the limit.

URIC ACID IN MEAT
CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder
Bothers

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—Advertisement.

ANAHEIM TO DISPLAY
FRUITS AT THE SHOW

J. W. Duckworth is Elected President of the Board of Trade

ANAHEIM, Jan. 28.—It was the unanimous decision of the Board of Trade to arrange for a display from Anaheim at the San Bernardino orange show next month. Charles Eygabroad was appointed in the capacity of master of arrangements, and is to act in conjunction with local packing-houses in sending a display. Never before has Anaheim had such heavily laden trees, and the fruit is of exceptional size and flavor. This is accounted for to a great extent by the fact that Anaheim experienced no frost injury last year, which has entitled her to wear the "frostless belt."

Owing to the breaking of the Richfield reservoir Monday, the water rushed in at the northern end of town and several ranches are surrounded with water. At the L. H. Fellows ranch the water stands up around the house. Mr. Fellows stated that it had not damaged his orange grove to any extent, and inasmuch as the water was thick with a rich silt, he believed that it would prove a decided benefit to his grove. J. C. Williams, owner of an adjoining ranch, explained that the water coming so slow, it did not tend to cut the groves, and they did not anticipate any further trouble.

RADIUM REDUCING PLANT OFFERED U.S.

BUFFALO, Jan. 28.—The offer of a well-equipped plant for the reduction of radium-bearing ore was telegraphed yesterday to the government by Stephen Lockwood, who ten years ago established the first plant to reduce radium. His telegram to Secretary of the Interior Lane said:

"To aid the government in preventing a radium monopoly, I offer you the use of a plant free for any reasonable time. It is equipped for the reduction of thirty tons of ore per day. I also have a large quantity of radium containing sulphate residues, which contains three to four milligrams to every hundred pounds. I will give this free to anyone who will stand the expense of reducing and give the resultant radium to science."

FATHER AND SON MOVEMENT
GROWS THROUGHOUT COUNTRY

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 28.—Robert E. Lewis, general secretary of the Central Y. M. C. A., announced today that close to 500 mayors of various cities throughout the United States and several governors had written or heartily endorsing the "Father and Son" movement, designed to bring fathers and sons into closer relationship.

The committee promoting the movement here recently wrote the mayors of 500 cities and the governors of all the states urging them to join in pushing the movement and asking them to issue proclamations similar to the one Mayor Newton D. Baker issued here, endorsing it and appealing to every citizen of the United States to join the movement. Mayor Baker in his proclamation outlined the object, stating that it was the purpose of the promoters to urge fathers and sons to begin a new fellowship and a new comradeship, and to learn to enjoy each other in recreation and in counsel.

SENATE FOR DRY
DOCK ON PACIFIC

East's Rivalry for New Dry
Dock Perils Chances in House for Western Project

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The senate yesterday passed without opposition the bill to guarantee $50,000 a year in naval dockage to the Union Iron Works for six years in return for the construction of a dry dock at Hunter's Point, San Francisco, capable of housing the largest battleship.

The real opposition to the bill will develop in the house where the rivalry between Norfolk and Philadelphia for a new Atlantic dry dock threatens the naval program for this year.

Representative Lee of Philadelphia is against any dry dock plan except the one for his city, and as part of the fight against Norfolk he will oppose the San Francisco plan.

SAGE TEA DARKENS
HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody Can Apply

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.—Advertisement.

ONE ROOM SCHOOLS PRAISED

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—The one-room school building was highly commended here today by speakers at the opening session of the Fourth Wisconsin Country Life Conference, which will continue through Friday. Commissioners of education, inspectors, superintendents and directors of country school from three states, and prominent educational specialists from the country at large were among those scheduled to discuss the work each is doing for the boys and girls of the country.

In discussing the one-room school speakers pointed out that in such structures pupils are afforded vastly better lighting and ventilating facilities than can possibly be given them in school buildings which do not permit of exposure on all four sides. Secretary of State John S. Donald, of Mt. Horeb, is president, and C. J. Galpin of Madison, is secretary of the conference.

IOWA PROGRESSIVE PLANKS

Iowa Progressives have caught the spirit of the times and have adopted a platform that includes some meritorious planks. The state conference lasted two days in Des Moines with 200 party leaders present from all over the state. The convention adopted unanimously the following report of the resolutions committee:

Presidential preference primary.
Opposition to invisible government through subsidized press and lobbies.
Laws to be passed only after public discussion.

Control and regulation of industrial combinations by government board.

Correction of court abuses; inferior federal judges to be selected by popular ballot.

Legal regulation of labor conditions; abolishment of child labor.
Granting of woman suffrage.
Rural credits.

Use of state receipts from hunters licenses to replenish game stock; of automobile licenses to make permanent highways.

Creation of Progressive clubs.
Initiative, referendum and recall.

PERSONALITY OF PRINTERS

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat comments on a news item from the Illinois penitentiary at Joliet, to the effect that among the 1200 inmates, there is not one printer. The newspaper produced by the prisoners has therefore to be set up outside the institution. The Globe-Democrat remarks: "The printer's craft is not supplying its quota to the penitentiaries of the country."

The Globe-Democrat notes that it was not always thus in the days before linotypes, when the tramp printer infested the land. Often he celebrated press day by going on a spree.

Printers as a whole do seem singularly free from the criminal taint. They are unpretentious, simple minded, living in modest houses in side streets. Few of them own "dress suits" and their names rarely appear in the select columns of high society.

A printer on newspaper work spends his time putting into type the history of the world. All forms of human activity pass through his brain and hands before the record is spread before the world. His mind is a storehouse of human experiences, and he looks at life with the maturity that grows out of this background of intelligence.

A man before whom this daily picture of crime and punishment is spread must be a pretty good fellow, if he did not acquire a pretty just estimate of the real values of life. From thousands of human stories that come to

CONTROLLING THE SPANISH ORANGE CROP

Spanish orange shippers, who practically control the European markets by reason of the volume of fruit they ship, have this year undertaken, and with every indication of success, to regulate shipments as a fact, or in maintaining prices on a profitable basis.

Not only does Spain supply northern Europe with the major part of the oranges there consumed, but the fruit she ships is of a superior quality, particularly so in the case of the "Dentals," the best brands of which command a premium on the markets. The Spanish exports or shipments amount to some 40,000 (California) carloads annually. While Italian exports approximate 10,000 (California) carloads annually of oranges, the fruit is of inferior quality to that of the Spanish, and is not an important factor in the important markets of northern Europe, to which points most of the Spanish crop is shipped.

The conditions surrounding the export of the Spanish orange crop are very different from those under which the California fruit is handled, and in this very difference mainly lies the possibility and probability of success in a practical control of shipments.

In Valencia, Spain, the point from which the greater part of the crop is shipped, the marketing of the fruit is financed by means of English capital. Prominent Liverpool brokerage houses dominate the business by advancing the funds necessary for the handling of the fruit.

The proposition to regulate shipments came in the first place from these English firms, aiming to maintain regular supplies and avoid the disastrous glutted markets of the past, and to eliminate rebates which had grown to be a serious menace to the business,—thus placing all shippers on an equal basis so far as transportation charges and shipping facilities are concerned.

While in the first place many of the Spanish shippers refused to accede to the proposals emanating from Liverpool, the announcement that the usual credits required for the opening of the shipping season would be withheld, pending the acceptance of the plans by all parties quickly stopped all opposition, and all the local shippers and packers became parties to the agreement.

The season of 1913-14 will then be notable in the Spanish orange business for two important events:

1. The agreement to withhold shipments until November 10th, whilst previous years had seen shipments of immature fruit going forward as a rule not later than October 25th.

2. The first practical efforts at co-operation between the local shippers in Valencia and the Liverpool brokers or handlers.

It is significant that the agreement to withhold shipments was faithfully kept by all shippers.

The actual methods by which this regulation of the shipments is maintained is of interest to all engaged in the orange business, wherever they may be situated. Under the new Valencia-Liverpool agreement, shipments are regulated at point of shipment, a his attention, the value of labor abiding conduct is to him axiomatic.

All callings have their faults. The printer sees too much human utility. The joy, the achievement, are commonly not dramatic enough to make good news stories. It is not strange that the average printer becomes committee of eleven having been appointed to undertake this. Of this committee five are appointed from among the representatives in Valencia of the Liverpool handlers, and six by the local Valencia shipping interests. This committee meets often, arranging shipping schedules, the size of cargoes according to current market conditions as reported from Liverpool, and also so handling the business as to kill the rebate system which had finally grown to such large proportions.

While it is yet too early to prophesy as to the ultimate success of these plans to control a perishable product by means of regulating the shipments thereof, it is of importance that it has, to date, worked out without a hitch. Shipments from Valencia for the first three weeks this season amounted to but 30,000 cases (70,000 California boxes) against between 50,000 and 60,000 cases (120,000 to 140,000 California boxes) for 1912.

Prices were well maintained under the reduced shipments, although it is impossible to estimate how much of the shortage was actually due to the short crop this season. There was, however, an outcry in a number of the English papers, against the increase in the prices of oranges to the consumer last Christmas.

Present information is to the effect that there will be no effort made to abnormally "boost" the market, but rather, by maintaining regular supplies, sufficient only to fill the existing demands, to obtain an even market, profitable to all, in place of the glut and "famines" of previous seasons.

Reports so far are silent as to the effects the new plan of agreement has or will have upon the grower. He has not been mentioned, and it almost looks as if he may ultimately find himself in the position of the underdog, unless he can organize successfully for his own benefit.

There are several reasons why this new plan of agreement to control one of the world's most important sources of orange supply is of great interest to the California orange grower:

1. Any great curtailment of shipments to northern European markets, the regular channels of trade, might lead to heavy shipments into this country under the new tariff, from the fact that there might be a surplus to dispose of. A nominal price would probably be acceptable for such fruit, the "regulated" markets providing profits sufficient to make a low market here attractive for the disposal of such a surplus.

2. The future is to see important shipments of California Navel and Valencia oranges to European markets. A "regulated" market should provide more favorable conditions than one subject to violent fluctuations.

3. It shows that it is possible to inaugurate a policy of control in the shipment of a perishable product, and to establish such control with every indication pointing to success. However, the details of the scheme are upon lines which would most certainly in this country be classed as being "in restraint of trade."

W.C.T.U. MOTHERS' MEETING

White Ribboners Voice Their Approval of Babyology Series in Santa Ana Register

Yesterday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mrs. H. C. Dawes, 1413 Spurgeon street, a large number of members and friends of the W.C.T.U. held one of the most interesting and helpful mothers' meetings of the year. The large living room of the Dawes home is especially adapted for such a meeting. The house was tastefully decorated with hyacinths, roses and greenery.

Mrs. Harry Dean led very appropriate devotional services. "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" and "Close to Me" were sung. The subject for discussion was "What We Owe Our Children," and was in charge of Mrs. F. H. McElree. Numbers were drawn for the creation of four divisions in the company. Division one was in charge of Mrs. E. B. Norman, whose subject under the number two was "The Ideal Home." Number two was in charge of Mrs. W. G. Gould, whose subject was "Punishment." Number three was in charge of Mrs. J. N. Anderson with the subject of "Education." Mrs. H. J. Forgy was to have had the subject of "Health," but owing to the illness of her little girl was unable to be present, and Mrs. J. A. Stevenson kindly took charge of the subject. Ten minutes was allowed for each division to discuss its subject, then the ladies moved on to the next, and so on until the round was made. At the close, the summing up of points was made by each leader.

Miss Roberta Dawes gave a piano solo, responding to an epore. Mrs. Anna Hill, who has been superintendent of the Y.P.B. for the past five years, finds she will be unable to continue in that capacity any longer, so tendered her resignation yesterday. It was accepted with many regrets, as a great deal of faithful work has been done by Mrs. Hill.

The report from the all day prayer meeting held Jan. 15, showed a very good attendance in spite of the rainy day. It was a very helpful meeting. The address by Rev. Scarborough on "Prayer a Power" was especially good. At this meeting Rev. Wright, Rev. Scarborough and Mrs. W. B. Tedford were requested to meet with the Ministerial Union to arrange a 1914 "Dry Campaign" Society at some date in the near future.

As the Santa Ana Register has begun a series of articles on "Little Talks on Babyology," the object of these articles being to instruct mothers how to care for their babies, the W.C.T.U. at yesterday's meeting voted its appreciation of this action, commending the editor of the Register for giving space to this series of valuable articles.

The union desires to urge the donations of good books to the library of the Y.M.C.A., which is located in the Register building. Such books as John Barleycorn, Rabbit Drive, etc., are needed in this library. The donation of such books for this good cause will be appreciated by the Y.M.C.A.

The next meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held at the home of Mrs. L. H. Mills and Mrs. Theo. Winbiger, 209 East Ninth street; subject: "Will-

LADIES WERE GUESTS

Elks' Home Was Gay With Music, Cards and Dancing for Evening Event

The fourth Tuesday of each month being designated as ladies' night by the local lodge of Elks, the occasion was observed last night with dancing and cards at Elks' Home on Sycamore street. Owing to recent weather conditions and other social functions conflicting, the attendance was not so large as usual, but the spirit which usually prevails on these occasions was not lacking.

While those who enjoy dancing were indulging in that amusement in the hall, what was played in the parlors by those who preferred that pastime. There were four tables of players engaged in progressive whist and when the scores were counted it was found that Mrs. R. R. Shafer had succeeded in annexing the highest number of points among the ladies, while H. J. Lowe and H. T. Duckett were tied for first place in the gentlemen's class. Mr. Lowe won the prize on a cut.

At the conclusion of the games the players repaired to the ball-room, where they either engaged in the sport themselves or watched the others dancing until the midnight hour. The Purlis Orchestra of four pieces furnished excellent music, and the event was pronounced an enjoyable one throughout.

E. L. Morrisons Coming Home

The friends of the Morrisons will be delighted to welcome them home under such favorable conditions.

CHARMING DINNER PARTY

Fourth in Series Given by Mrs. E. B. Burns Was Given Last Evening

Mrs. E. B. Burns gave the fourth in a series of small dinner parties last night, her dinner guests being Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Winbiger, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Alba J. Padgham.

The color motif included tints of pink and green, a mound of lovely American Beauty roses occupying the center of the table, while hyacinths and ferns in cut glass holders were seen at either end. Fern sprays were scattered over the snowy linen, completing a pretty ensemble. The pink and green tints prevailed in the salad course, the minis and the ices served elsewhere in the six courses.

Five Hundred was informally played after the dinner, Mrs. Jordan taking high score for the ladies and Mr. Winbiger for the men. Appropriate awards were made to best score winners, and merry conversation added to the pleasure of the occasion.

On reaching her home, after a visit to a friend where she had been the honoree at a birthday dinner, she was amazed to find the house taken possession of by a party of merry friends.

The first greetings over, a number of progressive games were played, following which was the serving of dainty refreshments.

Those present besides the honoree, Miss Evelyn, were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gowen, the Misses Koppin, Eva Tibbald, Grant, Messrs. E. Benedict, Doyle and Bergman.

Mr. Farnsworth's death occurred suddenly. Although ailing for some time, he retired last night feeling as well as usual. About 10 o'clock his wife heard him breathing heavily, but death came in a short time. The deceased had lived in Orange county for 17 years, and two years in Santa Ana.

HOMES OF THE SYRIANS.

Where It Is Little Trouble to "Take Up Thy Bed and Walk."

On the right as you enter the house stands a small structure of sun dried brick, called mekhdab. It is about five feet high, six feet long and a foot deep. On the inner side it is divided into openings of different sizes and serves the cosmopolitan purpose of a china closet, kettle cupboard, a place for father's Turkish pipe (nargile) and tobacco and whatever other little articles it may be convenient for the moment to thrust into it.

The mekhdab (fireplace) is at the forward end of this structure. It is such a fireplace as you would build at a picnic-square, open at the top for the kettle to set in and at one side to admit the fuel. It is built of clay mixed with straw and fine quartz. There is no chimney. The smoke floats in the house with the suffrance of public opinion. The ceiling is black and shining, as if it had been varnished. The earthen floor is painted frequently with red mud and rubbed with a smooth stone until it shines. It is furnished with straw mats, cushions and in the winter season soft and fluffy sheepskins.

There are no chairs, no bedsteads. The family sit and sleep on the floor. The bed consists of a thick cushion for a mattress, stuffed with wool or cotton, a pillow of the same material and a quilt for a cover. So when Jesus said to the man he had healed, "Arise, take up thy bed and walk," the man did not have very much to carry. In the daytime the beds are either rolled up, each one, in a heap and left on the floor next to the wall or put in a recess in the wall, constructed for the purpose.—Atlantic Monthly.

TACT OF EUGENIE.

Diplomacy of the French Empress on a Question of Dress.

A curious instance of the diplomatic methods of the ex-Empress Eugenie is worth recalling.

When Queen Victoria, Prince Albert and the princess royal were about to visit Napoleon III, and the Empress Eugenie it was feared at the French court that the young princess royal would not be dressed in a style that would harmonize with French taste. The question was how to beguile her royal parents into dressing the child in a suitable manner.

In this difficulty the empress had a really brilliant idea. The height and other measurements of the princess royal were obtained and a doll of exactly the same size procured. The doll was provided with a large and exquisitely finished tressure, and it was then dispatched to Buckingham palace as an imperial gift to the princess.

The expected happened. Queen Victoria, enchanted with the doll's wardrobe, transferred most of the outer garments to her daughter for use during their visit to the emperor and empress. The result was that the princess appeared at her best, and everybody was pleased.—London Spectator.

Criminals of Manila.

"Criminals are practically unknown in Manila," observed an official of that city. "I mean by this that there is no criminal class in the islands, as there is in European countries and in the United States. The yeggman, the professional pickpocket and sneak thief do not exist there. Of course we have to deal with high crimes, and there are a considerable number of murders. Doubtless this is due to the mercurial temperament of the people. The Philippines are much like the Spaniards. They are easily angered and commit murder in a moment of passion. The spirit of revenge also is pronounced among the Filipinos. I have found that most of the murders committed are traceable to that old motive—the eternal triangle. I don't recall any murders in the Philippines that were committed with guns. The weapon ordinarily used is the knife or bolo."—Washington Post.

Woman's Influence.

It is at the foot of woman we lay the laurels that without her smile would never have been gained. It is her image that strings the lyre of the poet, that animates the voice in the blaze of eloquent faction and guides the brain in the august toils of states counsel. Whatever may be the lot of man, however unfortunate, however oppressed, if he only love and be loved, he must strike a balance in favor of existence, for love can illumine the dark roof of poverty and lighten the fetters of the slave.—Disraeli.

Ringless Weddings.

Soothing the Bride.

"I told Maud that Jack was simply crazy to marry her, and she took offense." "Why was that?" "Don't know, unless it was that when I said it they had just been married."—Boston Transcript.

Whips at Weddings.

At Swedish weddings among the middle and lower classes the bridegroom carries a whip. This is an emblem of his authority in the domestic circle.

If people censure you unjustly try to feel as charitable toward them as you would if they praised you too highly.

COTTON TO FRONT IN IMPERIAL—NEW COMPRESSOR SOUGHT

CALEXICO, Jan. 28.—With cotton now beginning to be recognized as Imperial valley's most reliable and most profitable crop, plans are growing in all parts of the valley for methods of handling the increase in production that next season promises, Calexico, in the center of the valley cotton area, is heading the list with a plan for a new recompressing plant that will cost approximately $50,000 and have a capacity of fifty tons daily.

The total crop in the valley for this year has been estimated at 23,000 bales. That this production will be practically doubled next year there is little doubt among experts in the cotton industry and among men who have studied the development of cotton in this locality. One of the points leading to this conclusion, a cotton man who has had considerable experience in the valley said the other day, is the fact that this last season has brought forth more phenomenally large crops in proportion to the acreage cultivated than ever before.

THE SANTIAGO CREEK MENACE

Bridge Still Standing—Rainfall for Season Now Well Over Ten Inches

(By Staff Correspondent.)
ORANGE, Jan. 27.—No extensive damage has been reported from the recent rains through this vicinity. The East Chapman avenue bridge is still standing, though badly battered by the raging Santiago creek. Orchards bordering on its banks have been threatened by the danger of overflow but few such instances have thus far been reported. With the storm past the stream is not expected to rise any higher.
The rainfall for the last twenty-four hours was 1.01 inches, making 4.21 for the storm, and a total of 10.21 inches for the season.
Miss Flo Searritt was among the Los Angeles visitors today.
The Orange Athletic club basketball team has a game scheduled for Friday evening with the Huntington Beach High School, champions of Orange county. The Huntington team defeated the local high school team for the county title.
The blockading of traffic on the Santa Fe stranded a large number of passengers in this city last night. The hotels were flooded with the sudden influx of guests and the overflow crowds were sheltered at private homes.

The funeral of Miss Martha Klauer, whose death took place last week, was held yesterday in the presence of a large number of friends and amid a wealth of beautiful flowers. Services were conducted at 2 o'clock at the home on North Tustin street and in the German Lutheran church. Rev. Jacob Kogler officiated.

Public installation of the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors was held last evening at the I.O.O.F. hall. A large attendance was present, including members and their families. A banquet and an enjoyable evening followed the business part of the evening. Installing officers were Mrs. Addie B. Lucy and Mrs. Dora Dalrymple for the Royal Neighbors; Frank Honey and P. I. Bird for the Woodmen. The Royal Neighbors installed as follows: Mrs. Clara Wilson, orator; Mrs. Laura Wilson, past orator; Mrs. Martha Ensign, vice orator; Mrs. Cora Wilson, receiver; Mrs. Agnes Porter, marshal; Mrs. Nettie Wright, inner sentinel.

Following officers were installed for the Woodmen: John Kaiser, venerable consul; H. B. Wiseman, past consul; R. W. Jackson, worthy adviser; John F. Lee, clerk; Claude Potter, escort; W. W. Wilson, watchman; S. C. Lucas, manager.

W. B. Cannon of Los Angeles came down Sunday for a brief visit at the J. P. Small home on East Palmyra avenue. Mrs. Cannon, who has been here for a couple of weeks, returned home with him Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Howell of Santa Ana spent Sunday with Mrs. Howell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Douglass, west of Orange.

Miss Selma Schubert of West Palmyra avenue, has been on the sick list for several days.

COMMITTEE TALKS HARBOR FRONTAGE TO JAMES IRVINE

Newport News: A committee consisting of Trustees Parkinson, Way and Collins of the Board of Trustees, and Lew H. Wallace, W. W. Wilson, F. W. Beckwith and W. A. Cornelius of the Chamber of Commerce had a meeting with James Irvine, owner of the Irvine ranch, in regard to harbor frontage on Newport Bay, Friday noon.

The meeting was held on the strip of land on the bank of the Santa Ana river which the city wants Mr. Irvine to donate to the municipality in return for the voting of $100,000 for the construction of a jetty at the entrance to Newport Bay.

Mr. Irvine looked favorably on the proposition put up to him by the committee and said that he did not want to retard the development of Newport bay by putting off the construction of a jetty a day longer than necessary.

He asked that a deed be submitted to him embodying the demands and requirements of the city and he would put certain conditions in it himself. One of these was that if he donated the harbor frontage a clause would be placed in the deed making it the property of the city for harbor purposes forever. Another referred to the time required for the construction of the jetty. Mr. Irvine thought his deed for the property should not be held in escrow too long as the city would have the property tied up and if the bonds were not voted he would have no redress.

He has nothing but the kindest feeling for the Newport harbor project but said that the county as a whole seemed to hold a grudge at him as the valuation of his land was placed by the assessor much higher than the Moulton and other adjoining ranches.

Mr. Irvine drove down from his ranch house in his Stutz car and was accompanied by A. J. Crookshank.

HERE'S A WAY TO BEAT MR. HIGH COST O' LIVING

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 28.—"Don't keep a garbage can in any event. Chickens, if you have room for them, are the best substitute." This is one of the ways to get the best of Mr. High Cost O' Living, according to Mrs. Susie E. Weber, who has made a lifelong study of domestic economy—how to save waste and work in the kitchen. She hopes some day to establish a school in which she will teach the results of her experience. Mrs. Weber recently delivered a lecture to Normal School girls, who are seeking to learn how a family of five must live to get along on an income of $10 a week.

"The chief thing is to save waste," said Mrs. Weber. "Let me tell you it is the leaks in the kitchens of many households that are not only partly to blame for the present high cost of living but also the direct cause for not a few divorces. Save your greases, fats and suets off meats, out of which to render lard for cooking purposes. Grate your stale bread to use in place of flour in baking doughnuts, muffins and biscuits. Use one cupful of bread crumbs to every two cups of flour or cornmeal. Use celery leaves to make celery soup. Celery soup made this way is the finest. Celery ends make good celery salad. Eat lots of raw carrots if you wish to keep your hair from becoming gray. As for coffee, it all depends on its making. The highest grade does not always make the best coffee. It is care that makes good coffee."

"When working in the kitchen try to find the most graceful way, because it is always the easiest. Do not hunch over when peeling potatoes. Bring the potatoes to yourself. You save much of the potatoes as well as yourself. Beat eggs on a platter; not in a bowl. You will get a greater quantity and better results. Have plenty of tools to work with and up-to-date ones. Keep chickens or a garden so as to use the waste you cannot otherwise prevent."

TO ASK FOR LOWER RATES

Merchants Will Appeal to the Pacific Electric for 75-Cent
Round-Trip

At a meeting of the directors of the Merchants & Manufacturers' Association last night, President E. S. Gilbert was authorized to appoint a committee to make an effort to get the Pacific Electric to reduce the rates on the Santa Ana line. It is hoped to get a seventy-five-cent roundtrip fare instead of $1, the present rate. The merchants believe that Santa Ana is entitled to a lower rate, and they hope that when the matter is properly presented to the P. E. officials something will be done by them.

ATTORNEY STANLEY AND W. B. ALLEN KNEW SEN. CASEY

At least two citizens of Orange county were deeply and regretfully interested in an item carried in yesterday's dispatches to the Register. These citizens are Attorney Stanley and W. B. Allen of Anaheim, and the item is the announcement of the death in Washington, D. C., of former United States Senator Lyman R. Casey of Jamestown, North Dakota.

Mr. Stanley is a former North Dakotan and knew Senator Casey well. Mr. Allen is now an orange grower of this county, having a 29-acre grove inside or very near the city limits of Anaheim, and is active and efficient in all that pertains to good citizenship and public welfare.

SPECIAL WASHINGTON LETTER

By Burton K. Standish

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The military spy, as far as the United States is concerned, has been relegated to the discard. The secret service agents employed by the Treasury Department, the secret agents and investigators employed by the Department of Justice and the Postoffice and State departments, and the agents of the same rank employed by the Department of Labor and Commerce on white slave work, labor investigations, and to ferret out customs frauds, of course, are still on the payroll. But the old spy system in vogue with the War Department, and so much written about in song and story, is a relic of the past, according to officials of this branch of the government.

This fact, which undoubtedly will prove disconcerting to the novelists and romance writers, came out when estimates of the War Department recently published for 1914, failed to carry an appropriation for "military spies." Battle scarred war generals and majors, upon being questioned regarding this omission several days ago, furnished the further interesting fact that during 1913 not a single "military spy" was employed as such.

In discussing the passing of the military spy, one of the "desk generals" at the War Department—a soldier, by the way, who has seen his share of active service dodging bullets—was led to the observation that "times ain't what they used to be" in matters pertaining to the science of war. He pointed out the fact that the next war between two world powers will find no small amount of fighting both high in the air and under the ocean's surface, by virtue of the near-perfection of the aeroplane and dirigible, and the submarine.

The battlefield of the future," said the old "war dog," whose feats are known to everyone who has read late histories of the United States, "will present a vastly different scene from what it did ten, or even five years ago. The famous, kicking army mule has gone the way of the "military spy." The automobile truck has just about pushed him off the war maps. Even the comparatively recent but cumbersome wires and paraphernalia of the signal corps has been partially displaced by wireless telegraphy and telephony, and except on rare occasions, the bayonet and sabre will be supplanted by the long range guns, just as the old methods of grappling two wooden ships side by side followed by boarding and

A TRUE STORY

"I wish God would let me live just long enough to save 100 boys afflicted with the cigarette habit." With these words, 14-year-old Herbert Secret, a Detroit school boy, passed away.

For nine years he had been a victim of the habit which caused his death. The boy in his early school days showed every sign of a brilliant mind, and easily excelled all his companions in class until he began smoking. On his deathbed he confessed to having smoked as many as 35 cigarettes a day.

His parents were not aware that Herbert was smoking until the habit had a firm grip upon him. They only noticed a gradual failing in his school work and that he gained nothing in height or weight, but, on the contrary, continually lost. They sent him to a farm in Canada, where he could not get cigarettes, and in a short time he gained several inches but he came back to the city and to the toils of the old habit. From this time on his condition gradually became worse until his decline became critical illness. When young Herbert saw he was dying, he called his younger brother, Frank, to him and begged him to stop smoking. "I would like to save more boys, but I can't live," he wept piteously. A post-mortem examination showed that one side of his heart was practically gone and the organ twice the normal size with the muscles badly degenerated. Over the casket of this victim, many playmates took a vow to abstain from tobacco.

Herbert's father is a well-known citizen and church officer, and while he deplored the publicity of the affair he was willing the facts should be made known in the hope of saving some other boys before it was too late. —H. M. D.

WOMEN USING OWN NAMES

The tendency seems to be growing among members of women's clubs to use their own names instead of their husbands'. In some clubs, indeed, it is a rule that the women shall be known by their own names on the club books. The Kansas City Star repeats a little story in point, remarking that this loss of identity which has been forced on women by society is something against which the feminine movement might well take a stand. Yet there are not many women known in the world of literature or art who are not given their own names. The story was told by John Kendrick Bangs of a reception to Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Stanley in New York. Mr. Bangs took Mrs. Richard Henry Stoddard up to be introduced to Mrs. Stanley. Mrs. Stanley unexpectedly said: "I do not care to meet Mrs. Richard Henry Stoddard. I have no interest in her. But I am delighted to meet Elizabeth Barstow Stoddard, author of 'The Morgesons.'" Society women are usually known by their husbands' names so exclusively that when signing a letter with her own name a lady often must add her husband's name of being identified.—C. Agreed With Him
Here is a bit of cross-examination dug up by a jovial lawyer from his fund of reminiscences:

Q.—Now, what were the exact words used by the prisoner when he spoke to you?

A.—He said he stole the watch.

Q.—No, no. He wouldn't have used the third person.

A.—But there was no third person; only the two of us.

Q.—Then he must have said: "I stole the watch."

A.—Begorra, maybe you did, but he didn't squeal on you.

Because the styles in whiskers and congressmen have changed so rapidly—the former to answer Dame Fashion and the latter to answer political contingencies—a new "rogues gallery" of the House of Representatives is being compiled by Sergeant-at-Arms Gordon and Elliot Woods, superintendent of the capitol.

Each representative is contributing to the "rogues gallery" one recent photograph. The photos of all members will be mounted in a huge display frame hung in the sergeant-at-arms' office. The collection of representatives' photographs has been called the "rogues gallery" for years. Officially, the photographs are for identification purposes on congressional pay-days. The old collection of photographs showed many members wearing whiskers who are now clean shaven, and vice versa. The Democratic sweep last year also changed the membership to a large extent and the sergeant-at-arms insists upon having a new, up-to-date photograph collection.

Uncle Sam has a new crop of stone-breakers, but they're different from the old ones. The new crop consists of college graduates assigned to road building work and put through every process of the business after passing the stiffest civil service examination that can be devised.

Representative Bartholdt of Missouri speaks with a decided German accent, and like most of those who do, has decided likes and dislikes. One man in politics, whose name is unfortunately a little unfortunate, fell into the class of those who enjoyed the cordial dislike of the Missourian. Recently this man was appointed to a post in the consular service in an obscure European country. A friend who knew of the appointment said to Bartholdt, "I see your friend has been sent to a foreign post."

"Yes?" muttered the congressman. "Vell, der furriner der better." A coiffure genius here making money hand over fist by transforming straight hair into curly ringlets by an electrical treatment at $25 per treat. He guarantees three years permanency for the curls—come rain or shine.
